

EXPLORE MANUFACTURING

Career 1

Your next step is to search out careers that support your personality strengths. Based on your results from the *O*Net Interest Profiler*, locate the Careers menu on the Explore-Manufacturing.org website and click on your top strength label (i.e. artistic, conventional, realistic, etc.). Search three career types in that strength category.

1. Career 1: _____

a. What are the general qualifications for this career? (i.e. certification, education, etc.)

---

---

---

b. Summarize the duties entailed in this career:

---

---

---

---

2. Click on "check out their profiles below." within that career selection and find two companies that offer careers under that career heading. (you may have to click on Visit our Careers Page or company website on the company profile link to fully answer these questions)

a. Company 1: _____

• What does this company manufacture?

---

• What type of career positions (related to your personality strength) does this company offer?

---

---

---

• What sort of qualifications are required for an applicant to qualify for these positions?

---

---
